

NURSE PRACTITIONER PROGRAM DIRECTOR

Michigan State University College of Nursing invites applications for the position of Nurse Practitioner Program Director. This is an annual year, fixed term faculty position.

The program director is a member of the full time faculty in the College of Nursing and is responsible for providing leadership regarding the overall planning, implementation, recruitment, evaluation and revision of the master's and doctoral curriculum. The program director works closely with College administration including the Office of Student Support Service Advisors to achieve this mission. This position will serve as a liaison between clinical facilities and the College of Nursing for student's experiences and in securing appropriate clinical sites.

Position Requirements:

- DNP or PhD in nursing or related field is required;
- National certification as a Family or Adult/Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner;
- Unrestricted RN license without probationary status;
- Comprehensive knowledge and experience in specialty area;
- Previous teaching experience is required; baccalaureate and higher education teaching experience is desired;
- Prior administrative experience is desired.

MSU is committed to achieving excellence through cultural diversity.
The university actively encourages applications and/or nominations of women, persons of color, veterans and persons with disabilities.

Michigan State University is a land-grant university with a major focus on community engagement in the United States and throughout the world. The College of Nursing at Michigan State University is a growing community of scholars, teachers and practitioners with a full array of academic programs at the undergraduate, master's, and PhD levels. There are excellent academic and student support operations and an outstanding Center for Nursing Research that provides support in all aspects of research and scholarly roles.

The College is located in mid-Michigan in East Lansing on the Michigan State University campus. The East Lansing community offers a high quality of life and is close to recreational areas, sporting events and artistic performances and exhibits and a vibrant university life.

To apply please access the University Human Resources website at www.jobs.msu.edu. Address letter of interest, curriculum vitae and three references to: College of Nursing Dean's Office.

Salary and academic rank commensurate with credentials and experience. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

For information on becoming a Spartan call (800) 605-6424, email nurse@hc.msu.edu or visit nursing.msu.edu