Introduction to Nursing Scholarship
NUR 491 Section 001 (2 Credits)
Fall 2012: Wednesday, 12:40pm – 2:30pm
Room A131 Life Sciences Building

COURSE DESCRIPTION:
This section of NUR 491 aims to prepare students to become consumers of research who critically evaluate and base their nursing care on evidence. This course will expand students’ knowledge by providing an introduction to the research methodologies essential to providing evidence-based nursing care. Students will be expected to continue to refine their competencies in later courses as they utilize research findings in specific clinical applications.

Additional Course Description:
This 2 credit course will provide students with the opportunity to understand the importance and relevancy of nursing research. In addition the course will provide an introduction to key concepts in research, basic design, methods, and procedures for conducting research.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:
Upon completion of this course, students will be able to--
1. Develop an appreciation for the importance of nursing research.
2. Describe the basic steps of the research process utilizing the appropriate terminology.
4. Evaluate validity, reliability, and quality of resources related to research, including web based and published materials.
5. Use critical appraisal skills to evaluate research findings in nursing and related fields with respect to the problem, methods and findings.

PREREQUISITES: Honors college student, undergraduate student, or nursing preference.

“Final Course Grades will not be rounded”

COURSE POLICIES:

A. Attendance is required for all classes, unless prior arrangements have been made with course faculty. Classes are the entire time scheduled. Any unexcused absence may result in a decrease in the final course grade.

B. Human Subject Tutorial and Health Insurance Privacy Act Tutorial. These are online self-learning modules. Instructions on how to complete these modules are available in ANGEL. The Tutorial must be completed by 12 midnight on date listed on course calendar.

C. Completion of Annotated Bibliography: a 5-page paper, with a separate cover and references (limit of 5-per paper) in APA format. Requirements for the paper on listed in the Annotated Bibliography scoring rubric. The paper is DUE at 12 midnight on date listed on course calendar.

D. Critique of Research Article: a 5-page paper, with a separate cover and references (limit of 5-per paper) in APA format. Requirements for the paper on listed in the Critique of Research Article scoring rubric. The paper is DUE at 12 midnight on date listed on course calendar.
E. Quizzes Three quizzes will be given in class in ANGEL. Each quiz will worth 5 points that can go towards a final grade. For students who miss quizzes, 1-point will be deducted for each day the exam is taken late.

F. Interview with a Research Scientist. Students will use the template and conduct an interview with a research scientist in the College of Nursing (or field of interest [with permission of faculty]). The assignment will be placed in the Drop Box in ANGEL.

G. Poster and Poster Presentation. At the end of the semester, a Poster will be completed summarizing the literature reviewed during the annotated bibliography. The poster will be presented in the last class session.

H. Wrappers. A discussion forum will be available for student to post lessons learned from weekly readings/presentations in class.

I. Class participation: a seminar style discussion will occur during each class and it is expected that students will have read the required readings and participate in discussion every day; and to use teamwork when completing in-class projects.

J. Communication: faculty can be contacted most directly by e-mail or via office phone (see page one). Send all electronic communication to faculty through ANGEL. If necessary, appointments may be made individually with faculty to discuss specific concerns. Questions regarding specific content are to be directed to faculty. Information, assignments and announcements will be posted electronically on the MSU Angel site.

J. Student Faculty Relationship: Any concerns or issues that arise should be discussed with faculty as soon as possible. They can be reached via e-mail or phone listed on first page of syllabus. It is expected that a professional, courteous, positive demeanor will be exhibited to peers, faculty and College of Nursing staff with each encounter. It is expected that you will be on time to class. If for some reason you have to be late or leave early, the course chair should be notified and plans will be made so you will not disturb the entire class. Talking, reading the newspaper, cell phone use, and sleeping are unacceptable, and you will be asked to leave the room. Ipods, earphones of any type, recording devices and laptops are NOT permitted in class. Cell phones are to be turned off. Faculty is open to feedback, ideas, and concerns. For in-depth discussions, scheduled meeting is suggested. See contact information for email access.

K. Refer to MSU Spartan Life Handbook and College of Nursing BSN Handbook for policies regarding:
   1. Academic Dishonesty
   2. Taping and communication devices
   3. Weather
   4. Protection of property/computers
   5. Protection of Scholarship and grades
   6. SIRS
   7. Dress code
   8. Disabled Student

UNIVERSITY AND COLLEGE OF NURSING POLICIES:

The College of Nursing expects that students will demonstrate professional behavior in all situations. Specific expectations for clinical and other professional venues can be found in the appropriate handbook. You are responsible for reviewing and acting in accordance with the policies and procedures found in the following sources, including the following topics: Professionalism, Academic Integrity, Accommodations for Students with Disabilities, Disruptive Behavior, Attendance, Compliance, and Progression.

- CON Student handbook http://nursing.msu.edu/handbooks.asp
- Information for Current Students—including Rights, Responsibilities and Regulations for Students http://www.msu.edu/current/index.html
- Academic Programs http://www.reg.msu.edu/UCC/AcademicPrograms.asp

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY:

Academic Honesty: Article 2.3.3 of the Academic Freedom Report states: “The student shares with the faculty the responsibility for maintaining the integrity of scholarship, grades, and professional standards.” In addition, the College of Nursing adheres to the policies on academic honesty specified in General Student Regulation 1.0, Protection of Scholarship and Grades; the all-University Policy on Integrity of Scholarship and Grades; and Ordinance 17.00, Examinations. (See Spartan Life: Student Handbook and Resource Guide and/or the MSU Web site www.msu.edu.)

Therefore, unless authorized by your instructor, you are expected to complete all course assignments, including homework, lab work, quizzes, tests and exams, without assistance from any source. You are expected to develop original work for this course; therefore, you may not submit course work you completed from another course to satisfy the requirements for this course. Also, you are not authorized to use the www.allmsu.com Web site to complete any course work in this course. Students who violate MSU rules may receive a penalty grade, including but not limited to a failing grade on the assignment or in the course.
Please read each part of the following site to fully understand your responsibilities and the position of the University regarding: cheating, plagiarism, MSU regulations, ordinances and policies regarding academic honesty and integrity
Academic integrity links http://www.msu.edu/unit/ombud/honestylinks.html

Academic dishonesty in any form will not be tolerated in the College of Nursing. Any student involved in academic dishonesty will be reported to the Office of Academic Affairs and the Office of Student Services in the College of Nursing and a grade of 0.0 may be issued for the course.

Lectures, quizzes and examinations must remain the property of the College of Nursing and must not be copied from the Internet for use with others. Any quiz should not be printed. Printing an exam or quiz will be considered academic dishonesty. According to university policy, consequences for academic dishonesty may include failure of the course, expulsion from the major, or expulsion from the university. You are advised to complete and submit your own work. The exams are NOT group projects and must not be shared with other students in any way.

Online discussions and other course activities are confidential and should not be shared or discussed with others who are not enrolled in the class. The course provides an opportunity for each course participant to express his/her ideas and all are expected to do so. All ideas need to be respected in discussions and exercises. Any "group projects" (that are required) still require individual work as a minimal expectation, and individual work will be graded. For further information you can access any of the following sites:
International Studies and Programs http://www.msu.edu/international/index.html

Disruptive Behavior: Article 2.3.5 of the Academic Freedom Report (AFR) for students at Michigan State University states: "The student's behavior in the classroom shall be conducive to the teaching and learning process for all concerned." Article 2.3.10 of the AFR states that "The student has a right to scholarly relationships with faculty based on mutual trust and civility." General Student Regulation 5.02 states: "No student shall . . . interfere with the functions and services of the University (for example, but not limited to, classes . . .) such that the function or service is obstructed or disrupted. Students whose conduct adversely affects the learning environment in this classroom may be subject to disciplinary action through the Student Faculty Judiciary process.

Attendance: Students whose names do not appear on the official class list for this course may not attend this class. Students who fail to attend the first four class sessions or class by the fifth day of the semester, whichever occurs first, may be dropped from the course. See the Ombudsman’s web site for a discussion of student observance of major religious holidays, student-athlete participation in athletic competition, student participation in university-approved field trips, medical excuses and a dean's drop for students who fail to attend class sessions at the beginning of the semester.

College of Nursing Policies: Professional Development Guidelines are found in the CON MSN Student Handbook at the CON website. Students are responsible for the information found in the CON MSN Student Handbook.
