

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

COLLEGE of NURSING

DIRECTOR FOR PHD PROGRAM

Michigan State University College of Nursing is seeking an academic leader to shape a growing PhD program. The College of Nursing is committed to expanding and enriching graduate education in the environment of a research intensive university with a strong health science mission.

The ideal candidate will have a strong, funded research program and significant experience teaching graduate students and mentoring doctoral students. An interest in interdisciplinary collaboration and faculty development will also be desirable in this position. This is a twelve month appointment with effort distributed across administration, teaching and research.

The Director will provide administrative, educational and curricular leadership for the PhD Program in the College of Nursing; assure appropriate student, faculty and program evaluation; teach in area of expertise; collaborate with the Associate Dean for Research to coordinate external funding, publications and scholarly activities of doctoral students in an environment of research integrity; mentor faculty in doctoral teaching and guidance of students; and represent the College, university and community relations.

Qualifications:

1. Master of Science in Nursing, Doctor of Philosophy in Nursing or related field, Doctor of Philosophy in Nursing is preferred.
2. Eligible to obtain RN license in Michigan.
3. Established research program and successful record of funding and scholarship.
4. Record consistent with appointment as tenured Associate or Full Professor.
5. Record of teaching, mentorship and dissertation guidance in doctoral education.

MSU is committed to achieving excellence through cultural diversity.

The university actively encourages applications and/or nominations of women, persons of color, veterans and persons with disabilities.

Michigan State University is a land-grant university with a major focus on community engagement in the United States and throughout the world. The College of Nursing at Michigan State University is a growing community of scholars, teachers and practitioners with a full array of academic programs at the undergraduate, master's, and PhD levels. There are excellent academic and student support operations and an outstanding Center for Nursing Research that provides support in all aspects of research and scholarly roles.

The College is located in mid-Michigan in East Lansing on the Michigan State University campus. The East Lansing community offers a high quality of life and is close to recreational areas, sporting events and artistic performances and exhibits and a vibrant university life.

Send correspondence, curriculum vitae and three references to: Mary Mundt, PhD, RN, Professor and Dean, College of Nursing, A219 Life Sciences Building, Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI 48824-1317.

Salary and academic rank commensurate with credentials and experience. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

Visit our website at: www.nursing.msu.edu

MSU IS AN AFFIRMATIVE ACTION, EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER.