Yankees vs. Nationals Game Information & How to Watch

When: Wednesday, August 28, 2024 at 6:45 p.m. ET

Where: Nationals Park in Washington D.C.

TV: Watch on Amazon Prime Video

Box Score: Fox Sports

When the Yankees take on the Washington Nationals tonight, they'll be doing so exclusively on Prime Video (at least if you live in New York State, Connecticut, northern and central New Jersey, and northeast Pennsylvania).

Last night, the Bronx Bombers played game two of a three-game series against the Nats that ended with missed opportunities for the Yankees and a 4-2 win for the Nationals.

Tonight, they'll face the Washington Nationals for the third of three times during the 2024 season and could end the season series against them with a 2-1 record if they win tonight.

The New York Yankees and Washington Nationals will play on Wednesday at Nationals Park, at 6:45 p.m. ET, with Aaron Judge and Luis Garcia among those expected to deliver at the plate.

The 8.9 strikeouts per nine innings compiled by the Yankees pitching staff ranks sixth in MLB. The Nationals strike out 8.2 batters per nine innings as a pitching staff, 23rd in MLB.

Ahead of watching this Yankees vs. Nationals matchup, here is what you need to know about Wednesday's action on the diamond, including viewing options.
