The defender has an ongoing thigh issue and is joined in the treatment room by Oliver Skipp (groin) and Japhet Tanganga (knee).

Since then, though, regression has been clear. Atletico Madrid are so far removed from the original principles of 'Cholismo' that they can no longer grind out results like they did for years under Simeone, but the loss of attacking verve means they can't outscore opponents like they did for much of last Obviously everyone is frustrated about the result, about the performance too, the Portuguese said. We have to look at the mirror.

The hosts thought referee Stuart Attwell should have viewed the monitor after Martin Odegaard went down in a challenge with City goalkeeper Ederson in the first

The later collision with Flint had Anfield holding its collective breath. Surely not, we wondered, as Diaz landed awkwardly after contesting a header and reached for his Blackpool and QPR played out a 1-1 draw at Bloomfield Road, in a game where the hosts had an early goal controversially ruled out.

We had more opportunities to make attacks but weren't able to make chances except the excellent goal we scored, which we weren't able to replicate. QPR boss Mark Warburton: I thought we deserved to win the game today.

It is a tough job and they are putting so much into it to be the best they can be and I would like that to be recognised.

The 27-year-old has since struggled to adapt to life at Stamford Bridge and it has been suggested that he could return to Wanda Metropolitano six months early, but Tuchel has jumped to his Liveticker | Sporting Braga - Rapid Wien 2:1 | Play-offs Fazit: Die Europa League Qualifikationspartie zwischen Braga und Rapid Wien endet mit 2:1. In der zweiten Hälfte zogen die Gastgeber nachmals einen Gang

What I would say about the general landscape of the sporting calendar is that we are concerned about the oversaturation of sporting events from an athlete welfare perspective, he said.
