"We wait until we are losing before we start to play," said defender Stefan Savic. "I don't know if it's something in our heads, but we have to change it if we want to compete in the Champions

Regardless of the outcome, it's a game Arsenal don't need to win. I don't think a draw or even a loss in either direction is necessarily defining.

I think if the referee had seen it, he would have stopped it. Souness: Arsenal deserved win
Sky Sports pundit Graeme Souness said: Arsenal deserved to win.

To win this match, you need to have a different level of quality and we lacked that today, he said.

The league is continuing to work with clubs to keep people safe by helping mitigate the risks of Covid-19 within their

The top two teams from each group advance to the finals to join Qatar who qualify automatically as hosts and the two third place teams then face off in a playoff of which the winner then faces the inter-confederation playoff against a team from CONCACAF, CONMEBOL or OFC.

The 25-year-old has previously expressed a desire to win the Champions League, and with more than 100 Netherlands caps under her belt, has been made a key priority for the top European clubs.

I don't want to get involved in this political stuff. If the other games are postponed, they are postponed.

Others wonder if the team's lack of a high-press and reliance on the counterattack will cost them when they come up against stronger opponents in the Champions

You won the Champions League last season - now you must be aiming for the Premier League? That is the goal, we are working towards that.

They created loads of chances against Leeds on Saturday so it was pathetic for some Seagulls fans to boo them off after that game finished

But I also very much look up to Martin Odegaard and Erling Haaland, especially the latter's insane Manchester United have had tough difficult times before and have always bounced back, and we have taken on challenges.
